

PRIVACY NOTICE

YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION AND WHAT WE DO WITH IT

The meaning of some terms that we use in this privacy notice:

Process or processing includes everything we do with your personal information from its collection, right through to its destruction or deletion when we no longer need it. This includes for instance collecting it (from you), obtaining it (from other organisations), using, sharing, storing, retaining, deleting, destroying, transferring it overseas.

Legitimate interests is mentioned in our privacy notice because data protection laws allow the processing of personal information where the purpose is legitimate and is not outweighed by your interests, fundamental rights and freedoms. Those laws call this the legitimate interests legal ground for personal data processing.

WHO WE ARE AND HOW TO CONTACT US

LOUGHBOROUGH BUILDING SOCIETY of 6 High Street Loughborough LE11 2QB is a data controller of your personal information. This means information that is about you or from which we can identify you. This privacy notice describes how we deal with your personal information. We are the data controller of this information under relevant data protection laws because in the context of our business relationship with you we decide how and why it is processed in the ways explained in this privacy notice. When we use terms such as we, us and our in this notice, we mean Loughborough Building Society.

Our Data Protection Contact, Mr Gary Brebner, Chief Executive Officer, can be contacted at any time including if you have queries about this privacy notice or wish to exercise any of the rights mentioned in it.

You will see at the end of this privacy notice that we mention the privacy notices of Credit Reference Agencies. We do need to share these with you. Please read them carefully and contact those organisations if you have questions (their details are in their notices).

This privacy notice may be updated from time to time. This means we may send you an updated copy when required to do so.

HAVE YOU BEEN INTRODUCED TO US BY A BROKER OR OTHER INTERMEDIARY?

Our products and services are available through our own branches and by telephone as well as through professional and financial advisors and anyone else who acts as a person sitting in between you and us in relation to what we do for you. In this notice we will call these persons "brokers and other intermediaries".

When a broker or other intermediary processes your personal information on our behalf, this privacy notice will apply and you should contact us to exercise your rights under data protection laws. When a broker or other intermediary processes your personal information as a data controller in its own right, its own privacy notice will apply and you should ask them for a copy if you do not have one by the time you are introduced to us.

WHAT KINDS OF PERSONAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU DO WE PROCESS?

This will depend on the products or services you apply for and (if your application is successful) obtain from us. Before we explain what particular information we need in relation to our mortgage products and to our savings products, we will explain what information is relevant to all of our products and services.

PERSONAL INFORMATION THAT WE GENERALLY PROCESS IN CONNECTION WITH ALL OUR PRODUCTS AND SERVICES

This includes:

- Your title, full name, your contact details, including for instance your email address, home and mobile telephone numbers;
- Your home address, correspondence address (where different from your home address) and address history;
- Your date of birth and/or age, e.g. to make sure that you are eligible to apply for the product and/or that it is suitable for you;
- Your nationality, if this is necessary for us to comply with our legal and regulatory requirements;
- Records of how you have contacted us and, if you get in touch with us online, details such as your mobile phone location data, IP address and MAC address;
- Some special categories of personal data such as about your health or if you are a vulnerable customer.

ADDITIONAL PERSONAL INFORMATION THAT WE PROCESS IN CONNECTION WITH A MORTGAGE

This includes:

- Your financial details e.g. your salary and details of other income, details of your savings, details of your expenditure, and details of account(s) held with other providers if you pay your mortgage from those account(s);
- Details about all of your existing borrowings and loans;
- Personal information about your credit history which we obtain from Credit Reference Agencies (CRAs) including data which originates from Royal Mail (UK postal addresses), local authorities (electoral roll), the insolvency service, Companies' House, other lenders and providers of credit (who supply data to the CRAs), court judgments decrees and administration orders made publicly available through statutory public registers (see the section on 'Credit Reference Agencies' below);
- Information about your employment status including whether you are employed, retired or receive benefits;
- Information about your occupier status, such as whether you are a tenant, live with parents or are an owner occupier of the property in which you live at the time of your application;
- Information which is relevant for your residency and/or citizenship status, such as your nationality, your length of residency in the UK and/or whether you have the permanent right to reside in UK;
- Your marital status, family, lifestyle or social circumstances if relevant to the mortgage product (e.g. the number of dependents you have or if you are a widow or widower); and
- Where relevant, information about any guarantor which you provide in any application.

ADDITIONAL PERSONAL INFORMATION THAT WE PROCESS IN CONNECTION WITH A SAVINGS PRODUCT

This includes:

- Your financial details e.g. details of your other savings, and details of account(s) held with other providers if you pay into your savings product from those other account(s);
- Where a person other than the savings account holder makes a withdrawal from the account, information about that person and the transaction; and
- Information about your tax position.

JOINT APPLICANTS, GUARANTORS AND POWERS OF ATTORNEY

If you make a joint application with your spouse, partner or family member, we will also collect the personal information mentioned above about that person. You must show this privacy notice to the other applicant and ensure they confirm that they know you will share it with us for the purposes described in it. If you look now at the "What are the legal grounds" section (below) you will see reference to consent and a description of some limited scenarios where it may be relevant to what we do with personal information. If we ask you to obtain consent from the joint applicant (such as for marketing) you should do that using the consent capture mechanism that we give or make available to you for that purpose.

If you apply for your mortgage with a guarantor, they will see this privacy notice when they submit their own personal information to us because they must necessarily sign the application form or provide their details in the online application.

If there is somebody who has power of attorney over your affairs, that person will see this privacy notice when we make contact with them directly.

WHAT IS THE SOURCE OF YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION?

We will generally collect your personal information from you directly. If you are introduced to us by a broker or other intermediary, we will obtain some personal information about you indirectly from them when they introduce you to us.

In addition, we obtain your personal information from other sources such as Credit Reference Agencies (CRAs), your employer, landlord, other lenders, HMRC, DWP, publically available directories and information (e.g. telephone directory, social media, internet, news articles), debt recovery and/or tracing agents, other organisations to assist in prevention and detection of crime, police and law enforcement agencies.

Some of the personal information obtained from CRAs will have originated from publicly accessible sources for example the electoral register (also known as the electoral roll). We explain more about CRAs below. We have also mentioned above in the lists of personal information that we process some of the CRAs' other sources of information (which are our own source of information too).

WHAT ARE THE LEGAL GROUNDS FOR OUR PROCESSING OF YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION (INCLUDING WHEN WE SHARE IT WITH OTHERS)?

Data protection laws require us to explain what legal grounds justify our processing of your personal information (this includes sharing it with other organisations). For some processing more than one legal ground may be relevant (except where we rely on consent). Here are the legal grounds that are relevant to us:

- 1) Processing necessary to perform our contract with you for the mortgage product or savings product or, for taking steps prior to entering into it during the application stage:
 - a) Administering and managing your mortgage or savings account and services relating to that, updating your records, and tracing your whereabouts to contact you about your account and doing this for recovering debt;
 - b) Sharing your personal information with other payment services providers such as when you ask us to share information about your account with them;
 - c) All stages and activities relevant to managing your mortgage or savings account including enquiry, application, administration and management of accounts, illustrations, requests for adding or removing a person, setting up/changing/removing guarantors.

- 2) Where we consider that, on balance, it is appropriate for us do so, processing necessary for the following legitimate interests which apply to us and in some cases other organisations (who we list below) are:
 - a) Administering and managing your mortgage or savings account and services relating to that, updating your records, and tracing your whereabouts to contact you about your account and doing this for recovering debt;
 - b) To test the performance of our products, services and internal processes;
 - c) To adhere to guidance and best practice under the regimes of governmental and regulatory bodies such as HMRC, the Financial Conduct Authority, the Prudential Regulation Authority, the Ombudsman, the Information Commissioner's Office and under the Financial Services Compensation Scheme;
 - d) For management and audit of our business operations including accounting;
 - e) To carry out searches at Credit Reference Agencies (CRAs) pre-application, at the application stage, and periodically after that;
 - f) To carry out monitoring and to keep records (see below);
 - g) To administer our good governance requirements such as internal reporting and compliance obligations or administration required for AGM processes;
 - h) For market research and analysis and developing statistics;
 - i) When we share your personal information with these other people or organisations;
 - Your guarantor (if you have a mortgage with a guarantor);
 - Joint account holders, trustees and beneficiaries and any person with power of attorney over your affairs (in each case only if relevant to you);
 - Other payment services providers such as when you ask us to share information about your account with them;
 - Other account holders or individuals when we have to provide your information to them because some money paid to you by them should not be in your account;
 - The broker or other intermediary who introduced you to us;
 - Our legal and other professional advisers, auditors and actuaries;
 - Financial institutions and trade associations;
 - Governmental and regulatory bodies such as HMRC, the Financial Conduct Authority, the Prudential Regulation Authority, the Ombudsman, the Information Commissioner's Office and under the Financial Services Compensation Scheme;
 - Tax authorities who are overseas for instance if you are subject to tax in another jurisdiction we may share your personal information directly with relevant tax authorities overseas (instead of via HMRC);
 - Other organisations and businesses who provide services to us such as debt recovery agencies, back up and server hosting providers, IT software and maintenance providers, document storage providers and suppliers of other back office functions;
 - Buyers and their professional representatives as part of any restructuring or sale of our business or assets;
 - Credit Reference Agencies (see below where we explain more and refer to a separate leaflet for more information); and
 - Market research organisations that help us to develop and improve our products and services.

3) Processing necessary to comply with our legal obligations:

- a) For compliance with laws that apply to us;
- b) For establishment, defence and enforcement of our legal rights;
- c) For activities relating to the prevention, detection and investigation of crime;
- d) To carry out identity checks and anti-money laundering checks pre-application, at the application stage, and periodically after that.
- e) To carry out monitoring and to keep records (see below);
- f) To deal with requests from you to exercise your rights under data protection laws;
- g) To process information about a crime or offence and proceedings related to that (in practice this will be relevant if we know or suspect fraud); and
- h) When we share your personal information with these other people or organisations:
 - Your guarantor (if you have a mortgage with a guarantor);
 - Joint account holders, Trustees and beneficiaries, and the person with power of attorney over your affairs;
 - Other payment services providers such as when you ask us to share information about your account with them;
 - Other account holders or individuals when we have to provide your information to them because some money paid to you by them should not be in your account;
 - Law enforcement agencies and governmental and regulatory bodies such as HMRC, the Financial Conduct Authority, the Prudential Regulation Authority, the Ombudsman, the Information Commissioner's Office and under the Financial Services Compensation Scheme (depending on the circumstances of the sharing); and
 - Courts and to other organisations where that is necessary for the administration of justice, to protect vital interests and to protect the security or integrity of our business operations.

4) Processing with your consent:

- a) When you request that we share your personal information with someone else and consent to that;
- b) For direct marketing communications where we have your permission to do so;
- c) For some of our processing of special categories of personal data such as about your health or if you are a vulnerable customer (and it will be explained to you when we ask for that explicit consent what purposes, sharing and use it is for).

5) Processing for a substantial public interest under laws that apply to us where this helps us to meet our broader social obligations such as:

- a) Processing of special categories of personal data such as about your health or if you are a vulnerable customer.
- b) Processing that we need to do to fulfil our legal obligations and regulatory requirements.
- c) When we share your personal information with other people and organisations if they need to know that you are a vulnerable customer for example, your relatives, social services, your carer or the person who has power of attorney over your affairs.

HOW AND WHEN CAN YOU WITHDRAW YOUR CONSENT?

Much of what we do with your personal information is not based on your consent; instead it is based on other legal grounds. For processing that is based on your consent, you have the right to take back that consent for future processing at any time. You can do this by contacting us using the details above. The consequence might be that we cannot send you some marketing communications or that we cannot take into account special categories of personal data such as about your health or if you are a vulnerable customer (but these outcomes will be relevant only in cases where we rely on explicit consent for this).

We will tell the broker or other intermediary who introduced you to us that you have withdrawn your consent only if it is our data processor (this means an organisation that is processing personal information on our behalf) or if we are required to do when you exercise certain rights under data protection laws. You should make sure to contact them directly to withdraw your consent for what they do with your personal information as a data controller in their own right.

To comply with payment services regulations we have to share some of your personal information with other payment service providers in some circumstances such as when you ask us to share information about your account with them. Whilst those payment services regulations mention ‘consent’ for this, ‘consent’ in that context does not have the same meaning as ‘consent’ under data protection laws.

The legal grounds which may be relevant to this are compliance with our legal obligations, performance of our contract with you, our legitimate interests, or a combination of these. This is why if you ask to withdraw consent from what we do with your personal information where we need to have it for the payment services regulations, we may still have to hold and use your personal information.

IS YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION TRANSFERRED OUTSIDE THE UK OR THE EUROPEAN ECONOMIC AREA (EEA)?

No

HOW DO WE SHARE YOUR INFORMATION WITH CREDIT REFERENCE AGENCIES?

In order to process your application and manage your account we will supply your personal information to Credit Reference Agencies (CRAs) and they will give us information about you, such as about your financial history. We do this to assess creditworthiness and product suitability, check your identity, trace and recover debts and prevent criminal activity.

We will also continue to exchange information about you with CRAs on an ongoing basis, including about your settled accounts and any debts not fully repaid on time. CRAs will share your information with other organisations. Your data will also be linked to the data of your spouse, any joint applicants or other financial associates.

The identities of the CRAs, and the ways in which they use and share personal information, are explained in more detail at www.transunion.co.uk/crain.

WHAT SHOULD YOU DO IF YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION CHANGES?

You should tell us without delay so that we can update our records. For this purpose you may contact any of the Society’s offices. If you were introduced to us by a broker or other intermediary who is data controller in its own right, you should contact them separately. In some cases where you exercise rights against us under data protection laws (see below) we may need to inform the broker or other intermediary but this will not always be the case.

DO YOU HAVE TO PROVIDE YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION TO US?

We are unable to provide you with the mortgage product or savings product or to process your application without having personal information about you. Your personal information is required before you can enter into the relevant contract with us, or it is required during the life of that contract, or it is required by laws that apply to us. If we already hold some of the personal information that we need – for instance if you are already a customer – we may not need to collect it again when you make your application. In all other cases we will need to collect it except as follows.

In cases where providing personal information is optional, we will make this clear. For instance we will say in application forms, in branch, over the telephone, on our website, or via the broker or other intermediary, if alternative (such as work) telephone number contact details can be left blank.

DO WE DO ANY MONITORING INVOLVING PROCESSING OF YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION?

In this section monitoring means any listening to, recording of, viewing of, intercepting of, or taking and keeping records (as the case may be) of calls, email, and in person face to face meetings and other communications.

We may monitor where permitted by law and we will do this where the law requires it. In particular, where we are required by the Financial Conduct Authority’s regulatory regime to record certain telephone lines or in person meetings (as relevant) we will do so.

Some of our monitoring may be to comply with regulatory rules, self-regulatory practices or procedures relevant to our business, to prevent or detect crime, in the interests of protecting the security of our communications systems and procedures, to have a record of what we have discussed with you and actions agreed with you, to protect you and to provide security for you (such as in relation to fraud risks on your account) and for quality control and staff training purposes.

Some of our monitoring may check for obscene or profane content in communications.

We may conduct short term carefully controlled monitoring of your activities on your mortgage or savings account where this is necessary for our legitimate interests or to comply with our legal obligations. For instance, where we suspect fraud, money laundering or other crimes.

FOR HOW LONG IS YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION RETAINED BY US?

Unless we explain otherwise to you, we will hold your personal information for the following periods:

- Retention in case of queries. We will retain the personal information that we need to keep in case of queries from you (for instance, if you apply unsuccessfully for a product or service) for up to 12 months unless we have to keep it for a longer period (see directly below);
- Retention in case of claims. We will retain the personal information that we need to keep for the period in which you might legally bring claims against us which in practice means up to 6 years after the relevant contract you have with us has come to an end unless we have to keep it for a longer period (see directly below); and
- Retention in accordance with legal and regulatory requirements. We will retain the personal information that we need to keep, even after the relevant contract you have with us has come to an end, for 12 years for mortgage members and 6 years for savings members and this will be to satisfy our legal and regulatory requirements.

If you would like further information about our data retention practices, contact our Data Protection Contact.

WHAT ARE YOUR RIGHTS UNDER DATA PROTECTION LAWS?

Here is a list of the rights that all individuals have under data protection laws. They do not apply in all circumstances. If you wish to exercise any of them we will explain at that time if they are engaged or not. The right of data portability is only relevant from May 2018.

- The right to be informed about the processing of your personal information;
- The right to have your personal information corrected if it is inaccurate and to have incomplete personal information completed;
- The right to object to processing of your personal information;
- The right to restrict processing of your personal information;
- The right to have your personal information erased (the “right to be forgotten”);
- The right to request access to your personal information and to obtain information about how we process it;
- The right to move, copy or transfer your personal information (“data portability”);
- Rights in relation to automated decision making which has a legal effect or otherwise significantly affects you.

You have the right to complain to the Information Commissioner’s Office which enforces data protection laws: <https://ico.org.uk/> You can contact our Data Protection Contact for more details on all the above.

If you wish to exercise any of these rights against the Credit Reference Agencies or a broker or other intermediary who is data controller in its own right, you should contact them separately.

DATA ANONYMISATION AND USE OF AGGREGATED INFORMATION

Your personal information may be converted into statistical or aggregated data which cannot be used to re-identify you. It may then be used to produce statistical research and reports. This aggregated data may be shared and used in all the ways described in this privacy notice.

YOUR MARKETING PREFERENCES AND WHAT THIS MEANS

We may use your home address, phone numbers, email address and social media (e.g. Facebook, Google and message facilities in other platforms) to contact you according to your marketing preferences. This means we do this only if we have a legal ground which allows it under data protection laws – see above for what is our legal ground for marketing. You can stop our marketing at any time by writing to us at our address, informing us at any of our branches or contacting our Data Protection Contact at enquiries@theloughborough.co.uk or by visiting our website www.theloughborough.co.uk

DATA PRIVACY NOTICES FROM OTHER ORGANISATIONS

We have mentioned that we share your personal information with Credit Reference Agencies. They require us to pass on to you information about how they will use your personal information to perform their services or functions as data controllers in their own right. The Credit Reference Agency Information Notice (CRAIN) is separate to our own. Copies are provided to mortgage applicants as part of the application process, or are available on request at any of our offices, or, by email to our Data Protection Contact at enquiries@theloughborough.co.uk or on our website www.theloughborough.co.uk.
